Sex. Scandal. Secrets. The dynamic co-writing duo Virginia DeBerry and Donna Grant are back with UPTOWN, a novel as big as New York City itself. UPTOWN follows a prominent real estate family caught in a storm of greed, infidelity and betrayal. DeBerry and Grant have written a novel culled from the most titillating headlines—the real estate debacle; political intrigue, adultery and where unfettered ambition meet at the intersection of big money and the “American Dream.” DeBerry and Grant fans will not be disappointed with this look into the high rolling, no hold barred world of real estate development and family drama. UPTOWN begs the question when money, power and respect are at stake, how do friendships and the bonds of family survive? With seven novels to their credit, DeBerry and Grant, best friends for 25 years, have turned their friendship into a successful and enduring writing collaboration.
